ARCHIVIST

Class Code: 1191

Open Date: 06-06-14

ANNUAL SALARY

$53,954 to $78,906 and $63,914 to $93,438

Candidates from the eligible list are normally appointed to vacancies in the lower pay grade positions.

DUTIES

An Archivist performs professional archival work in appraising, analyzing, classifying, describing, preserving and providing reference service from historic documents and manuscripts; implements systems, standards and procedures for maintaining, retrieving, protecting and preserving historical records; prepares finding aids to make archival materials accessible to the public; and does related work.

REQUIREMENTS

1. A bachelor's degree from a recognized four-year college or university, and two years of full-time paid archival experience which include the responsibility for identifying, analyzing, classifying and indexing historical records for archival storage.
2. Experience of the above type may be substituted for education lacking on a year for year basis up to a maximum of two years (NOTE: 30 semester or 45 quarter units = 1 year of education).

NOTES:

1. Applicants who lack six months or less of the above required experience may file for this examination. However, they cannot be appointed until the full experience requirement is met.
2. A Master's degree in Archival Science or Library Science is especially desired.
3. In addition to the regular City application form, each applicant is required to submit the Archivist Qualifications Questionnaire at the time of filing. The Archivist Qualifications Questionnaire is located within the Supplemental Questions Section of the City application. Applicants who fail to complete the Qualifications Questionnaire will not be considered further in this examination and their applications will not be processed.

WHERE TO APPLY

Applications will only be accepted on-line. When you are viewing the on-line job bulletin of your choice, simply scroll to the top of the page and select the "Apply" icon. On-line job bulletins are also available at <http://agency.governmentjobs.com/lacity/default.cfm> for Open Competitive Examinations.

NOTE:

Applicants are urged to apply early to ensure you have time to resolve any technical issues you may encounter.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applications and Qualifications Questionnaires must be received by THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 2014.

In accordance with Civil Service Rule 4.2, all applicants who apply may not be tested in this examination. To meet anticipated hiring needs, only a limited number of qualified applicants will be invited to participate in the interview in the following order: 1) Applicants currently employed by the City of Los Angeles who meet the minimum requirements, or are on a reserve list; 2) Remaining applicants who meet the minimum requirements in sufficient numbers to meet hiring needs in the order that applications were received. Applications submitted during the filing period will be kept on file for two years from June 6, 2014 in the event that additional applicants need to be tested to meet hiring needs.

EXPERT REVIEW COMMITTEE

Should a large number of qualified candidates file for this examination, an expert review committee may be assembled to evaluate each candidate's qualification for the position of Archivist. In this evaluation, the expert review committee will assess each candidate's training and experience based upon the information in the candidate's City employment application and the Qualifications Questionnaire. Those candidates considered by the expert review committee as possessing the greatest likelihood of successfully performing the duties of an Archivist, based solely on the information presented to the committee, will be invited to participate in the interview.

SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: Interview 100%

Your examination score will be based entirely on your professional and personal qualifications by interview. In the interview, emphasis may be placed on the candidate's experience, training and professional development as they have provided the knowledge of: archival principles, organization, procedures, and methods of processing and filling archival materials; the care and preservation of archival materials; methods and techniques of historical research and research in archival materials; records retention and records management principles; electronic equipment, copiers, scanners, and computer software related to the preservation of archival documents; document imaging/scanning for online preservation; and the ability to: establish a filing, storage, and retrieval system for control purposes and maintain effective indexing procedures; communicate effectively with City officials, other employees, and the public; and other necessary skills, knowledge, and abilities.

The Qualifications Questionnaire will not be separately scored, but will be considered by the interview board in evaluating each candidate's qualifications. Candidates may expect the interview panel members to discuss this information during the interview. Qualifications Questionnaires submitted by candidates on the day of the interview will not be accepted for presentation to the interview board.

Candidates will be notified by mail of the date, time, and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles. It is anticipated that interviews will begin during the period of August 4, 2014 through August 16, 2014.
