SELECTION PROCESS

After meeting minimum qualifications, candidates will be scheduled for the following:

Examination Weight:	Written Test	50%
	Interview	50%

The examination will consist of a written test and interview. In the written test, which will consist of essay questions, candidates may be tested for knowledge of: the principles, practices, methods, programs, facilities, and equipment needed for the development and administration of a comprehensive recreational, park maintenance and facility repair program; safety principles and practices pertaining to the maintenance and operation of public recreation and parks programs and facilities; budget preparation and administration; City of Los Angeles procurement processes; capital projects within the Department of Recreation and Parks, including community involvement and funding; City Charter and Administrative Code provisions, and State and federal laws affecting the work of the Recreation and Parks Department; principles, practices, methods and techniques of public administration and legislative analysis; fundamental principles and practices of supervision and management, including delegating, directing, assigning, motivating, training, counseling, disciplining, commending and evaluating the work of subordinates; pertinent City and Personnel Department rules, policies, and procedures, including Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and provisions in Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) as they relate to subordinate personnel; and the ability to manage multiple facilities, including operations, staffing, budgeting, marketing, fundraising, and facilities management; estimate resources such as staffing, equipment, and time; monitor, track, and evaluate program efficiencies; use computer software in order to conduct research, complete surveys, and collect, track, and analyze data; prepare and provide recommendations to the General Manager and Board of Recreation and Parks Commissioners; plan, coordinate, and supervise a large staff reporting to City facilities that provide recreation and park programs; communicate effectively, both orally and in writing; deal tactfully and effectively with public officials, the public, civic groups, management, subordinates, and others; and other necessary skills, knowledge, and abilities.

The written test will be administered in a single half-day session on SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16, 2017 in Los Angeles. Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the time and location of the written test. Candidates may anticipate that PCs (personal computers) will be made available to type their essay responses.

Candidates must achieve a passing score on the written test in order to be invited to the interview.

In the interview, candidates will be assessed on their knowledge of: the principles, practices, methods, programs, facilities, and equipment needed for the development and administration of a comprehensive recreational, park maintenance and facility repair program; safety principles and practices pertaining to the maintenance and operation of public recreation and parks programs and facilities; budget preparation and administration; City of Los Angeles procurement processes; capital projects within the Department of Recreation and Parks, including community involvement and funding; City Charter and Administrative Code provisions, and State and federal laws affecting the work of the Recreation and Parks Department; principles, practices, methods and techniques of public administration and legislative analysis; fundamental principles and practices of supervision and management, including delegating, directing, assigning, motivating, training, counseling, disciplining, commending and evaluating the work of subordinates; pertinent City and Personnel Department rules, policies, and procedures, including Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and provisions in Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) as they relate to subordinate personnel; and the ability to manage multiple facilities, including operations, staffing, budgeting, marketing, fundraising, and facilities management; estimate resources such as staffing, equipment, and time; monitor, track, and evaluate program efficiencies; use computer software in order to conduct research, complete surveys, and collect, track, and analyze data; prepare and provide recommendations to the General Manager and Board of Recreation and Parks Commissioners; plan, coordinate, and supervise a large staff reporting to City facilities that provide recreation and park programs; communicate effectively, both orally and in writing; deal tactfully and effectively with public officials, the public, civic groups, management, subordinates, and others; and other necessary skills, knowledge, and abilities.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the date, time, and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles.
