QUALIFICATIONS REVIEW

Should a large number of qualified candidates file for this examination, each candidate's qualifications for the position of Communications Electrician may be evaluated based on the candidate's responses to the Qualifications Questionnaire. Those candidates considered possessing the greatest likelihood of successfully performing the duties of a Communications Electrician based solely on the information submitted for qualifications review will continue in the selection process.

SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weights:	Written	Qualifying
	Interview100%

The examination will consist of a qualifying written test and an interview. In the qualifying written test, which will consist of multiple-choice questions, the following competencies may be evaluated: judgment and decision making, safety focus, initiative, conscientiousness, job knowledge, customer service, teamwork, and oral communication.

Additional information can be obtained by going to <http://per.lacity.org/eeo/JobAnalyses.htm> and clicking on Competencies under Communications Electrician.

Passing Score for the Qualifying Written Test

The passing score for the qualifying test will be determined by Personnel Department staff after the qualifying written test is administered. Consideration will be given to the number of candidates taking the test and the existing and anticipated number of vacancies, such that there are a sufficient number of eligible on the list to satisfy current and future vacancies for the next two years. Therefore, the passing score for the qualifying multiple-choice written test may be set either above or below 70%.

Candidates must achieve a passing score on the qualifying written test in order to be called for the interview. The examination score will be based entirely on the interview.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the time and location of the written test, which will be administered in a single, half-day session on SATURDAY, DECEMBER 05, 2015 in Los Angeles.

In the interview, the following competencies may be evaluated: judgment and decision making, safety focus, initiative, conscientiousness, job knowledge, customer service, teamwork, and oral communication.

Additionally, the interview board will consider the information in the candidate's Qualifications Questionnaire in their overall evaluation of the candidates' qualifications. Candidates may expect the interview panel members to discuss this information during the interview. Qualifications Questionnaires submitted by candidates on the day of the interview will not be accepted for presentation to the interview board.

NOTES:

1. This examination is based on a validation study, and as provided by Civil Service Commission Rule 4.20, the written tests will not be subject to candidate inspection.
2. Based on the Federal Omnibus Transportation Employee Testing Act of 1994, you may be required to undergo mandatory drug and alcohol testing prior to and during employment in this class.
3. As a covered entity under the Fair Employment and Housing Act and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability and upon request, will provide reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to its programs, services, and activities. To request a disability accommodation, please complete the Disability Accommodation Form within 14 calendar days of the submittal of the City application. The Disability Accommodation Form can be obtained at http://per.lacity.org/exams/verify_disability.pdf.
4. Applications are accepted subject to review to ensure that minimum qualifications are met. Candidates may be disqualified at any time if it is determined that they do not possess the minimum qualifications stated on this bulletin.
5. A final average score of 70% on the interview portion of the examination is required to be placed on the eligible list.

Notice:

If you receive and accept an offer of employment to a regular position with the City of Los Angeles, your employee benefit coverage (including health and dental coverage as well as life insurance) will commence approximately six weeks after your original regular appointment. Not all positions in the City receive benefit coverage; you should inquire regarding the availability of employee benefits prior to accepting a position.
