DUTIES

A Police Performance Auditor performs professional performance audits and conducts comprehensive procedural and operational audits of Police Department programs, procedures, and activities; analyzes data, prepares audit documents and reports; and performs related duties as assigned.

REQUIREMENT

Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university and two years of full-time paid experience conducting performance, compliance, operations, or program audits in accordance with professional auditing standards.

NOTES:

1. In addition to the regular City application form, each applicant is required to submit the Police Performance Auditor Qualifications Questionnaire and Training and Experience Questionnaire at the time of filing. The Police Performance Auditor Qualifications Questionnaire and Training and Experience Questionnaire are located within the Supplemental Questions Section of the City application. Applicants who fail to complete both questionnaires will not be considered further in this examination, and their application will not be processed.
2. Applicants who lack six months or less of the above experience may file for this examination. However, they cannot be appointed until the full experience requirement is met.
3. Some positions may require a valid California driver's license. Candidates may not be eligible for appointment to these positions if their record within the last 36 months reflects three or more moving violations and/or at-fault accidents, or a conviction of a major moving violation (such as DUI).
4. Designation as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), or Certified Governmental Auditing Professional (CGAP) is highly desired, but not required.
5. Please note that qualifying education must be from a college or university accredited by a City of Los Angeles recognized agency. A list of approved accrediting agencies can be found at http://per.lacity.org/Accredited Institutions 08-21-08.pdf.

WHERE TO APPLY

Applications will only be accepted on-line. When you are viewing the on-line job bulletin of your choice, simply scroll to the top of the page and select the "Apply" icon. On-line job bulletins are also available at <http://agency.governmentjobs.com/lacity/default.cfm> for Open Competitive Examinations.

NOTE:

Applicants are urged to apply early to ensure you have time to resolve any technical issues you may encounter.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applications, Qualifications Questionnaires, and Training and Experience Questionnaires must be received by THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2015.

In accordance with Civil Service Rule 4.2, all applicants who apply may not be tested in this examination. To meet anticipated hiring needs, only a limited number of qualified applicants will be invited to have their Training and Experience Questionnaire evaluated in the following order: 1) Applicants currently employed by the City of Los Angeles who meet the minimum requirements, or are on a reserve list; 2) Remaining applicants who meet the minimum requirements in sufficient numbers to meet hiring needs in the order that applications were received. Applications submitted during the filing period will be kept on file for two years from February 06, 2015 in the event that additional applicants need to be tested to meet hiring needs.

QUALIFICATIONS REVIEW

Should a large number of qualified candidates file for this examination, each candidate's qualifications for the position of Police Performance Auditor may be evaluated based on the candidate's responses to the Qualifications Questionnaire. Those candidates considered possessing the greatest likelihood of successfully performing the duties of a Police Performance Auditor based solely on the information submitted for qualifications review will continue in the selection process.

SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: Assessment of Training and Experience100%

The examination will consist entirely of an evaluation of training and experience, wherein candidates may be evaluated on their knowledge, experience, professional background, personal qualifications and abilities including knowledge of: theory, principles and practices of auditing government or large organizations, including the methods and procedures used to examine, verify and analyze operation records, statements, and reports; standards for the professional practices of Internal Auditing (Institute of Internal Auditors), Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (GAAS) or Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards (GAGAS); general research and analytical techniques; principles of organization and methods of analysis; statistical methods, including qualitative and quantitative analysis and statistical sampling; and the ability to understand and explain complex legal provisions in conducting audits; document and organize audit findings; collect, compile, analyze and interpret data; use computer software; conduct necessary research and investigation using a variety of techniques; identify organizational problems or issues of concern pertaining to personnel and apply reasonable solutions; write summaries in report format for audit findings; apply instructions, training, legal, and department requirements to audit work; maintain good interdepartmental and working relations; exercise good judgment, courtesy, and tact when interacting with department staff, elected officials, and members of the public; communicate effectively both orally and in writing; and other necessary skills, knowledge, and abilities.

The Training and Experience Questionnaires will be submitted to an expert review panel for evaluation. The expert review panel will assign a numeric score to each candidate based on an assessment of each candidate's qualifications, as described in the candidate's Training and Experience Questionnaire. Unsolicited supplemental information will not be submitted to the review panel.

The Qualifications Questionnaire will not be separately scored, but will be considered by raters in evaluating each candidate's qualifications. Qualifications Questionnaires submitted by candidates after the filing period will not be accepted.
