AN EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applications must be received by THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 2015.

In accordance with Civil Service Rule 4.2, all applicants who apply may not be tested in this examination. To meet anticipated hiring needs, only a limited number of qualified applicants will be invited to participate in the written test in the following order: 1) Los Angeles City promotional applicants who meet the minimum requirements. You must have received a regular appointment to a City position or be on a reserve list to apply for this examination as a promotional candidate; 2) Applicants currently employed by the City of Los Angeles on a part-time or exempt basis who meet the minimum requirements; 3) Remaining applicants who meet the minimum requirements in sufficient numbers to meet hiring needs in the order that applications were received. Applications submitted during the filling period will be kept on file for two years from November 13, 2015 in the event that additional applicants need to be tested to meet hiring needs.

SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weights: Written Test Qualifying
Interview 100%

In the qualifying written test, which will consist of multiple-choice questions, candidates may be examined for knowledge of: storekeeping methods and procedures for handling a variety of materials, supplies, tools, equipment and records; operating characteristics of material handling equipment and their capacities and limitations; standard abbreviations used in shipping, weights and measures; methods of inspecting and comparing materials, equipment or records with specification or requisitions documents; shelf life of a variety of perishable materials; modern warehousing practices for determining efficient storage; inventory systems, including periodic, perpetual and physical; clerical procedures; basic arithmetic, conversions for liquid and dry measurements from standard to metric; safety principles and practices, including handling and storage of procedures for hazardous materials following the Safety Data Sheet (SDS) and CAL/OSHA rules, regulations; and other necessary skills, knowledge and abilities.

The qualifying written test will be administered in a single half-day session on SATURDAY, JANUARY 23, 2016, in Los Angeles. Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the time and location of the written test.

Passing Score for the Qualifying Written Test

The passing score for the written test will be determined by Personnel Department staff after the qualifying written test is administered. Consideration will be given to the number of candidates taking the test and the existing and anticipated number of vacancies, such that there are a sufficient number of eligibles on the list to satisfy current and future vacancies for the next two years. Therefore, the passing score for the qualifying multiple-choice written test may be set either above or below 70%.

Candidates must achieve a passing score on the qualifying multiple-choice test in order to be scheduled for the interview.

The examination score will be based entirely on the interview. In the interview, emphasis may be placed on the candidate's experience, training and professional development as they have provided the background needed to direct and coordinate the work of employees engaged in storekeeping activities, including knowledge of: storekeeping methods, procedures, practices, terminology, standards and techniques used in handling a wide variety of materials, supplies, tools and equipment; methods to inspect materials, supplies, tools, equipment, and records and compare various material requisition forms; safety principles and practices, including handling and storage of procedures for hazardous materials following the Safety Data Sheet (SDS) and CAL/OSHA rules, regulations; methods for establishing and maintaining a perpetual inventory; shelf life of a variety of perishable materials; various inventory systems; information presented on computer print outs and other data processing documents; supervisory principles, practices and techniques needed to effectively train, motivate and evaluate subordinates job performance; City Personnel rules, policies and procedures including Equal Employment Opportunity and Memoranda of Understanding; and ability to deal tactfully and effectively with subordinates, management, the public, customers and vendors; compare work completed with written and oral instructions; communicate orally on a one to one basis to give or obtain information, explain procedures, policies, methods of performing tasks, or to persuade others and other necessary skills, knowledge and abilities.

NOTES:

1. This examination is based on a validation study, and as provided by Civil Service Commission Rule 4.20, the qualifying written test will not be subject to candidate inspection.
2. As a covered entity under the Fair Employment and Housing Act and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability and upon request, will provide reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to its programs, services, and activities. To request a disability accommodation, please complete the Disability Accommodation Form within 14 calendar days of the submittal of the City application. The Disability Accommodation Form can be obtained at http://per.lacity.org/exams/verify_disability.pdf.
3. Based on City Policy, you may be required to undergo mandatory drug and alcohol testing prior to and during employment in this class.
4. In conjunction with Civil Service rules, applicants who are current eligible City employees or are on a reserve list will be considered Promotional candidates while all other applicants will be considered open candidates.
5. The promotional list will ordinarily be used ahead of the open competitive list. However, if open competitive candidates receive a higher score, without military credits, than the highest available promotional candidate, after candidates receive a higher score, without military credit, than the highest available promotional candidate, after adding 0.25 of a point seniority credit for each year of continuous service, the Civil Service Commission, upon request of the appointing authority, may approve certification of such open competitive candidates ahead of the promotional candidates.
6. Applicants are accepted subject to review to ensure that minimum qualifications are met. Candidates may be disqualified at any time if it is determined that they do not possess the minimum qualifications stated on this bulletin.
7. A final average score of 70% in the interview portion is required to be placed on the eligible list.
8. You must have received a regular appointment to a City position or be on a reserve list to file on a promotional basis.

Notice:

If you receive and accept an offer of employment to a regular position with the City of Los Angeles, your employee benefit coverage (including health and dental coverage as well as life insurance) will commence approximately six weeks after your original regular appointment. Not all positions in the City receive benefit coverage; you should inquire regarding the availability of employee benefits prior to accepting a position.

THIS EXAMINATION IS TO BE GIVEN BOTH ON AN INTERDEPARTMENTAL PROMOTIONAL AND AN OPEN COMPETITIVE BASIS

The City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, disability, creed, color, ancestry, medical condition (cancer), or Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome.
