SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: Essay .....Advisory
Interview .....100%

The examination will consist entirely of an evaluation of personal and professional qualifications by interview. In the interview, emphasis will be placed on an evaluation of the nature and adequacy of the candidate's background and experience as they have provided the knowledge of: the theory, principles, and practices of transportation engineering, including administering and directing the preparation of designs, plans, specifications, estimates, studies, technical reports and recommendations; State and City laws and regulations; transportation problems encountered in a large city; construction, inspection, general administration, and coordination; programs, policies, standards, and organization; coordinating, supervising, and planning problems encountered in large-scale transportation engineering work; supervisory principles and practices, including personnel rules, policies, and procedures, Memoranda of Understanding (MOU), and equal employment opportunity; and the ability to direct work programs, develop design standards, organize procedures, and exercise administrative control of subordinate personnel; deal tactfully and effectively with other City departments, governmental agencies, and the public; evaluate alternative proposals as to soundness of traffic engineering features, economic feasibility, and long-range planning aspects; prepare technical and operating reports; and other necessary skills, knowledge, and abilities.

At the time of the interview, candidates will be required to prepare some written material related to the duties and responsibilities of a Senior Transportation Engineer. This material will not be separately scored, but will be presented to the interview board for discussion with the candidate and for consideration in the overall evaluation of the candidate. Candidates who fail to complete the advisory writing session may be disqualified. Candidates may anticipate that PCs (personal computers) will be made available to type their advisory essay responses.

Candidates will be notified by e-mail of the date, time and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles. It is anticipated interviews will begin during the period of MAY 18, 2015 to MAY 29, 2015.
