AN EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applications must be received on-line by THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 2016.

In accordance with Civil Service Rule 4.2, all applicants who apply may not be tested in this examination. To meet anticipated hiring needs, only a limited number of qualified applicants will be invited to participate in the interview in the following order: 1) Los Angeles City Promotional applicants who meet the minimum requirements. You must have received a regular appointment to a City position or be on a reserve list to apply for this examination as a promotional candidate; 2) Applicants currently employed by the City of Los Angeles on a part-time or exempt basis who meet the minimum requirements; 3) Remaining applicants who meet the minimum requirements in sufficient numbers to meet hiring needs in the order that applications were received. Applications submitted during the filing period will be kept on file for two years from March 18, 2016 in the event that additional applicants need to be tested to meet hiring needs.

SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: Essay Advisory
Interview 100%

The examination will consist entirely of an interview. In the interview, emphasis may be placed on the evaluation of the nature and adequacy of the candidate's experience, training, and professional development as they have provided the knowledge of: common causes of accidents and malfunctions of low and high voltage equipment systems; procedures, materials and tools used for low and high voltage equipment maintenance and repair; wire ropes; generators and electric motors; high voltage electrical equipment; hydraulic systems; mechanical test equipment and gages; safe use of arc, oxy-acetylene, mig, and tig welding equipment; welding including types of welding rod for various uses, and characteristics of a good weld; rigging practices including placement of slings; arithmetic sufficient to calculate quantities of materials and estimated work time; electrical theory sufficient to handle and to connect electrical; safety principles and regulations; lockout and tag out procedures; supervisory principles and techniques; Equal Employment Opportunity policies; and the ability to: use circuit diagrams or plans; plan routine inspection and maintenance done at appropriate intervals for each type of equipment; use information received from Port Electrical Mechanics reports and other reports of trouble to assign priorities to various jobs needing attention in addition to the normal schedule; communicate orally sufficient to discuss work assignments, job requirements, and other information with supervisors and coworkers; write sufficient to obtain or to provide information; identify special training needs and/or limitations of subordinates and taking action such as reassigning work and/or scheduling training to make the most effective use of personnel; and other knowledge, skills, and abilities.

At the time of the interview, candidates will be required to prepare some written material relating to the duties of a Port Electrical Mechanic Supervisor. This essay material will not be separately scored, but will be presented to the interview board for discussion with the candidate and for consideration in the overall evaluation of the candidate. Candidates who fail to complete the advisory essay may be disqualified. Candidates may anticipate that PCs (personal computers) will be made available to type their advisory essay response.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the date, time, and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles. It is anticipated that interviews will begin during the period of MAY 9, 2016 to MAY 20, 2016.

NOTES:

1. This examination is based on a validation study.
2. Applications are accepted subject to review to ensure that minimum qualifications are met. Candidates may be disqualified at any time if it is determined that they do not possess the minimum qualifications stated on this bulletin.
3. As a covered entity under the Fair Employment and Housing Act and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability and upon request, will provide reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to its programs, services, and activities. To request a disability accommodation, please complete the Disability Accommodation Form within 14 calendar days of the submittal of the City application. The Disability Accommodation Form can be obtained at http://per.lacity.org/exams/verify_disability.pdf.
4. In conjunction with Civil Service Rules, applicants who are current eligible City employees or are on a reserve list will be considered Promotional candidates while all other applicants will be considered open candidates.
5. You must have received a regular appointment to a City position or be on a reserve list to file on a promotional basis.
6. A final average score of 70% or above is required to be placed on the eligible list.
7. The promotional list will ordinarily be used ahead of the open competitive list. However, if open competitive candidates receive a higher score, without military credit, than the highest available promotional candidate, after adding 0.25 of a point seniority credit for each year of continuous classified City service, the Civil Service Commission, upon request of the appointing authority, may approve certification of such open competitive candidates ahead of the promotional candidates.
8. If in accordance with the Rule of Three Whole Scores all applicants are eligible for appointment consideration, the examination will consist entirely of an evaluation of the candidates' City applications by Personnel Department staff to ensure that the minimum qualifications have been met.
9. In accordance with Civil Service Rule, Sec. 4.24, review periods may be combined. Candidates in the examination process may file protests as provided in Sec. 4.20, 4.22 and 4.23 as applicable and within the required time frame; however, the Personnel Department may respond to and resolve protests prior to the establishment of the eligible list.

NOTICE:

If you receive and accept an offer of employment to a regular position with the City of Los Angeles, your employee benefit coverage (including health and dental coverage as well as life insurance) will commence approximately six weeks after your original regular appointment. Not all positions in the City receive benefit coverage; you should inquire regarding the availability of employee benefits prior to accepting a position.
