DUTIES

A Transmission and Distribution District Supervisor plans, organizes, and directs or assists in directing technical employees in the construction and maintenance (including splicing energized power cables) of overhead power lines and underground power cables in a combined overhead and underground district; or directs, or assists in directing, the operations of a specialized function such as electric trouble, pole spotting, streetlight patrol and maintenance, and transmission patrol and maintenance; applies sound supervisory principles and techniques in building and maintaining an effective work force; and fulfills equal employment opportunity responsibilities.

REQUIREMENT

Two years of full-time paid experience as an Electric Distribution Mechanic Supervisor with the City of Los Angeles.

NOTES:

1. In addition to the regular City application, all applicants must complete a Transmission and Distribution District Supervisor Qualifications Questionnaire at the time of filing. The Transmission and Distribution District Supervisor Qualifications Questionnaire is located within the Supplemental Questions section of the City application. Applicants who fail to complete the Qualifications Questionnaire will not be considered further in this examination, and their application will not be processed.
2. Applicants who lack six months or less of the required experience may file for this examination. However, they cannot be appointed until the full experience requirement is met.
3. Some positions may require a valid California driver's license. Candidates may not be eligible for appointment to these positions if their record within the last 36 months reflects three or more moving violations and/or at-fault accidents, or a conviction of a major moving violation (such as DUI).

WHERE TO APPLY

Applications will only be accepted on-line. When you are viewing the on-line job bulletin of your choice, simply scroll to the top of the page and select the "Apply" icon. On-line job bulletins are also available at <https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/lacity/promotionaljobs> for Promotional Examinations.

SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: EssayAdvisory
Interview 100%

The examination score will be based entirely on the interview. In the interview, emphasis may be placed on the candidate's experience, training, and professional development as they have provided knowledge of: electrical theory as applied in distribution lines, transmission lines, and street light systems; DWP management policies and procedures related to electrical transmission and distribution, including Distribution and Construction Standards, General Orders (95, 128, and 165), DWP Operating Orders, Joint Pole Routine Agreement, and DWP working rules; DWP safety procedures and practices including Electrical Safety Orders, DWP Safety Rule Book and Administrative Manual, procedures for obtaining clearances and "OK TO's", and first aid; procedures, techniques, methods, materials, tools and equipment used in construction and maintenance of distribution and transmission lines; preventative maintenance practices and procedures used to minimize outages; types of topography found at job sites; DWP organizational structure; procedures for ordering materials, tools or equipment from appropriate service groups; estimating methods used to determine future personnel, equipment, and materials needs; pertinent City and Personnel Department rules, policies and procedures, including Equal Employment Opportunity and Memoranda of Understanding as they apply to subordinate personnel; supervisory principles, practices, and techniques such as delegation of authority, progressive discipline, performance evaluation, planning, organizing, directing, and staffing; and the ability to plan, layout, direct and coordinate the work of groups of employees, a district, or specialized unit; conduct disciplinary investigations; prepare narrative reports which are logically arranged and incorporate correct English grammar, syntax, spelling, and sentence structure in order to explain information and make recommendations and decisions; communicate in a clear, concise, and succinct manner to individuals within the department, individuals in other City departments, other government agencies, groups, and the public; deal tactfully and effectively with others; and other necessary skills, knowledge, and abilities.

As part of their evaluation of each candidate's overall qualifications for the job, the interview panel members will also consider the information in the candidate's Qualifications Questionnaire. Candidates may expect panel members to discuss this information during the interviews. Unsolicited supplemental information will not be submitted to the interview panel.

Candidates will also be required to prepare some written material relating to the duties of a Transmission and Distribution District Supervisor. This essay material will not be separately scored, but will be presented to the interview panel for discussion with the candidates and for consideration in the overall evaluation of candidates' qualifications. Those who do not complete the advisory essay will not be invited to the interview and will be considered to have failed the entire examination.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the time and location of the advisory essay, which will be held in a single half-day session in Los Angeles, on SATURDAY, AUGUST 20, 2016.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the date, time, and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles. It is anticipated that interviews will begin during the period of SEPTEMBER 12, 2016 to SEPTEMBER 23, 2016.

NOTES:

1. This examination is based on a validation study.
2. Applications are accepted subject to review to ensure that minimum qualifications are met. Candidates may be disqualified at any time if it is determined that they do not possess the minimum qualifications stated on this bulletin.
