Passing Score for Qualifying Written Test

The passing score for the qualifying written test will be determined by Personnel Department staff after the qualifying written test is administered. Consideration will be given to the number of candidates taking the test and the existing and anticipated number of vacancies, such that there are a sufficient number of eligibles on the list to satisfy current and future vacancies for the next two years. Therefore, the passing score for the qualifying multiple-choice written test may be set either above or below 70%.

Only those candidates who attain a passing score on the written test may move forward to the Physical Abilities Test (PAT). The PAT is designed to measure physical capabilities and may include measures of muscular strength, muscular endurance, anaerobic capacity, flexibility, balance, and/or coordination. Those candidates who are scheduled for the PAT will be notified by email of the date, time, and location.

Candidates must pass the qualifying written test and PAT to have their essay-based Training and Experience Questionnaire (T&E) evaluated. T&Es of these candidates will be submitted to an expert review panel for evaluation. The expert review panel will assign a numeric score to each candidate based on an assessment of each candidate's qualifications, as described on the candidate's T&E.

If you receive and accept a conditional job offer, appointment is subject to completing a MEDICAL EXAMINATION and PSYCHOLOGICAL EVALUATION. Candidates must be determined to be medically and psychologically qualified to perform the essential duties of a Detention Officer.
