(Exam Open to All, including Current City Employees)

ANNUAL SALARY

$58,171 to $85,044 and $68,611 to $100,307

NOTES:

1. Starting salaries for new hires are normally made to the lowest annual salary in the pay range. The current salary range is subject to change. Please confirm the starting salary with the hiring department before accepting a job offer.
2. Candidates from the eligible list are normally appointed to vacancies in the lower pay grade positions.

DUTIES

Researches, compiles, analyzes, and maps crime trends and patterns; disseminates information related to criminal activity; assists patrol, investigative, and administrative staff in planning the deployment of resources for the prevention, intervention, and suppression of criminal activities; acts as liaison to all Los Angeles Police Department and neighboring law enforcement Crime Analysis Details; may act as lead analyst; and performs related work.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Two years of full-time paid professional experience in a class at the level of Management Assistant performing duties in researching, compiling, and analyzing crime trends and patterns in a law enforcement agency; or
2. Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university and completion of a Certificate Program in Crime and Intelligence Analysis from an accredited college or university.

PROCESS NOTES

1. Applicants who lack six months or less of the required experience may file for this examination. However, they cannot be appointed until the full experience requirement is met.
2. In addition to the regular City application, all applicants must complete and submit an online Crime and Intelligence Analyst Training and Experience (T&E) Questionnaire at the time of filing. The Crime and Intelligence Analyst Training and Experience Questionnaire is located within the Supplemental Questions Section of the City Application. Candidates who fail to submit the T&E Questionnaire at the time of filing will not be considered candidates in this examination and their application will not be processed.
3. For qualifying work experience gained outside of the City of Los Angeles, the term "professional experience" applies to positions that require possession of a degree from an accredited four-year college or university in order to obtain that position. Therefore, to be considered "professional," non-City qualifying experience must be gained in positions after obtaining a four-year degree.
4. Some positions may require a valid California driver's license prior to appointment. Candidates may not be eligible for appointment to these positions if their record within the last 36 months reflects three or more moving violations and/or at-fault accidents, or a conviction of a major moving violation (such as DUI).
5. Please note that qualifying education must be from a college or university accredited by a City of Los Angeles recognized agency. A list of approved accrediting agencies can be found at: <http://per.lacity.org/Accredited%20Institutions%2008-21-08.pdf>.
6. Applicants filing under Requirement #2 must submit proof of completion of a recognized Certificate Program in Crime and Intelligence Analysis as indicated in Requirement #2. Applicants must attach a copy of the proof of completion to the on-line application at the time of filing. The requested document(s) must be attached to the on-line application BEFORE the application is submitted. If the document(s) is attached AFTER the on-line application has been submitted, it will not be available to the City and applicants WILL NOT be credited with having submitted the documents. Applicants who fail to submit the document(s) at the time of filing by attaching it to the on-line application will not be considered further in this examination.

On-line job bulletins are also available at <https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/lacity> for Open Competitive Examinations.

NOTE:

Applicants are urged to apply early to ensure you have time to resolve any technical issues you may encounter.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applications and Training and Experience Questionnaires must be received by THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2017.

In accordance with Civil Service Rule 4.2, all applicants who apply may not be tested in this examination. To meet anticipated hiring needs, only a limited number of qualified applicants and their Training and Experience Questionnaires will be processed in the following order: 1) Applicants currently employed by the City of Los Angeles who meet the minimum requirements or are on a reserve list; 2) Remaining applicants who meet the minimum requirements in sufficient numbers to meet hiring needs in the order that applications were received. Applications submitted during the filing period will be kept on file for two years from September 15, 2017 in the event that additional applicants need to be tested to meet hiring needs.

SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: Evaluation of Overall Qualifications 100%

The examination score will be based entirely on an evaluation of the candidate's overall qualifications. The evaluation, conducted by a panel of subject matter experts and based on job-related criteria, will consist of an assessment of the candidate's employment application, including background and training; and the information indicated on the Crime and Intelligence Analyst Training and Experience Questionnaire. The following competencies may be evaluated: Analytical Ability; Attention to Detail; Self Management; Technology Application; Interpersonal Skills; Oral Communication; Written Communication; and Job Knowledge, including knowledge of: crime and intelligence techniques used in law enforcement, research methods for assessing effectiveness of crime reduction strategies, behavioral analysis, crime analysis techniques and applications, and other necessary skills, knowledge, and abilities.

Applications and Training and Experience Questionnaires will be evaluated by an expert review committee who shall assign a numeric score to each candidate based on an assessment of each candidate's qualifications and whose experience is most likely to provide them with the knowledge, skills, and abilities to perform the duties of a Crime and Intelligence Analyst. The review committee's evaluation will be based entirely on your qualifications as you have described them in your application and Training and Experience Questionnaire.

Additional information can be obtained by going to <http://per.lacity.org/index.cfm?content=jobanalyses> and clicking on Competencies under Crime and Intelligence Analyst.

1. As a covered entity under the Fair Employment and Housing Act and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability and, upon request, will provide reasonable accommodation to ensure equal access to its programs, services, and activities. To request a disability accommodation, please complete the Disability Accommodation Form within 14 days of the submittal of the City application. The Disability Accommodation Form can be obtained at http://per.lacity.org/exams/verify_disability.pdf.
2. Applications are accepted subject to review to ensure that minimum qualifications are met. Candidates may be disqualified at any time if it is determined that they do not possess the minimum qualifications stated on this bulletin.
3. Candidates must pass a background investigation prior to appointment that includes a review of their employment history, criminal conviction record, habitual use of intoxicants and drugs, and any other factors that may affect the candidate's suitability for employment as a Crime and Intelligence Analyst.
4. Candidates may be required to undergo a DRUG and ALCOHOL screening test based on City policy.
5. A final score of 70% is required to be placed on the eligible list.
6. In accordance with Civil Service Rule, Sec. 4.24, review periods may be combined. Candidates in the examination process may file protests as provided in Sec. 4.20, 4.22 and 4.23 as applicable and within the required time frame; however, the Personnel Department may respond to and resolve protests prior to the establishment of the eligible list.

NOTICE:

If you receive and accept an offer of employment to a regular position with the City of Los Angeles, your employee benefit coverage (including health and dental coverage as well as life insurance) will commence approximately six weeks after your original regular appointment. Not all positions in the City receive benefit coverage; you should inquire regarding the availability of employee benefits prior to accepting a position.
