SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weights:	Written Test	Qualifying
	Essay	Advisory
	Interview	100%

The examination for Electrical Mechanic Supervisor will consist of a qualifying written test, an advisory essay, and interview. In the qualifying written test, which will consist of multiple-choice questions, candidates may be examined for knowledge of: electrical theory relevant to installation, commissioning, maintenance and repair of electrical and electronic equipment in transmission, distribution, receiving, and generating systems; mechanical theory relevant to installation, maintenance, and repair of electrical and electronic equipment; nomenclature, function, operation, maintenance needs, and use of electrical, mechanical, hydraulic and pneumatic equipment, tools, and test instruments used in electrical work; practices and procedures for assembling, dismantling, and repairing electrical and mechanical equipment; rigging, including blocks and tackle, cranes, hoists, and slings; inspection procedures for electrical transmission, distribution, and receiving equipment and water system electrical work; safety practices, procedures, laws, and regulations, including CAL/OSHA, State Safety Orders, DWP safety policies and procedures, Operating Orders, and National Electrical Code pertinent to working with or around high and low voltage electrical, electronic, or energized equipment, riggings, and safety equipment; properties and handling procedures of various materials used in electrical work; first aid procedures; Department of Water and Power clearance and "OK to" procedures for de-energizing and re-energizing electrical equipment; fundamental principles and practices of supervision, including directing, assigning, delegating, controlling, motivating, counseling, disciplining, commending, and evaluating the work of subordinates; pertinent City and Personnel Department rules, policies, and procedures, including Equal Employment Opportunity and Memoranda of Understanding as they apply to subordinate employees; and the ability to prepare labor, material, and equipment estimates; plan, direct, schedule, and coordinate the work of crews engaged in the installation, repair, and maintenance of high and low voltage electrical equipment; perform mathematical calculations, including basic arithmetic, metric conversions, and plane geometry; read and understand construction plans, circuit, and wiring diagrams and schematics; read and interpret manufacturer's equipment manuals; and other necessary skills, knowledge, and abilities.

On the same day of the qualifying written test, candidates will be required to prepare some written material relating to the duties of an Electrical Mechanic Supervisor. This essay material will not be separately scored for those candidates who pass the qualifying multiple-choice test, but will be presented to the interview panel for discussion with the candidates and for consideration in the overall evaluation of candidates' qualifications. Those who do not complete the advisory essay will not be invited to the interview and will be considered to have failed the entire examination.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the time and location of the qualifying written test and advisory writing exercise, which will be held in a single half-day session in Los Angeles, on SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 2016.

Candidates must achieve a passing score on the qualifying multiple-choice test in order to be scheduled for the interview.

Passing Score for the Qualifying Written Test

The passing score for the qualifying written test will be determined by Personnel Department staff after the qualifying written test is administered. Consideration will be given to the number of candidates taking the test and the existing and anticipated number of vacancies, such that there are a sufficient number of eligibles on the list to satisfy current and future vacancies for the next two years. Therefore, the passing score for the qualifying multiple-choice written test may be set either above or below 70%.

The examination score will be based entirely on the interview. In the interview, candidates may be evaluated on their experience, professional background, and personal qualifications, including knowledge of: maintenance procedures for electrical and mechanical equipment, including lubrication, adjustment, and cleaning procedures for generating, transmission, distribution, receiving, control, and auxiliary equipment in electric substations, generating stations, power plants, chlorination stations, pumping stations, filtration stations, and converter stations; practices and procedures for assembling and installing appropriate electrical and mechanical equipment; practices and procedures for dismantling and repairing electrical and mechanical equipment; safety practices, procedures, laws, and regulations, including CAL/OSHA, State Safety Orders, DWP safety policies and procedures, Operating Orders, and National Electrical Code pertinent to working with or around high and low voltage electrical, electronic, or energized equipment, riggings, and safety equipment; properties and handling procedures of various materials used in electrical work; the ability to assess and diagnose malfunctions in electrical and mechanical equipment; fundamental principles and practices of supervision, including directing, assigning, delegating, controlling, motivating, counseling, disciplining, commending, and evaluating the work of subordinates; pertinent City and Personnel Department rules, policies, and procedures, including Equal Employment Opportunity and Memoranda of Understanding as they apply to subordinate employees; and the ability to prepare labor, material, and equipment estimates; plan, direct, schedule, and coordinate the work of crews engaged in the installation, repair, and maintenance of high and low voltage electrical equipment; communicate in writing in order to prepare memos and reports in response to work activities and inquiries from management and outside agencies; communicate orally to obtain and provide information, direct crew's operations, counsel employees, coordinate activities, and conduct training, in an appropriate tone and persuasive manner; deal tactfully with others, using good judgment in a variety of situations which may involve disagreements and interpersonal problems; and other necessary skills, knowledge, and abilities.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the date, time, and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles.

NOTES:

1. This examination is based on a validation study, and as provided by Civil Service Commission Rule 4.20, the written test will not be subject to candidate inspection.
2. Applications are accepted subject to review to ensure that minimum qualifications are met. Candidates may be disqualified at any time if it is determined that they do not possess the minimum qualifications stated on this bulletin.
3. As a covered entity under the Fair Employment and Housing Act and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability and upon request, will provide reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to its programs, services, and activities. To request a disability accommodation, please complete the Disability Accommodation Form within 14 calendar days of the submittal of the City application. The Disability Accommodation Form can be obtained at http://per.lacity.org/exams/verify_disability.pdf.
4. Seniority credit at the rate of 0.25 of a point for each year of continuous service will be added to the weighted test score of the candidate.
5. You must have received a regular appointment to a City position or be on a reserve list to file on a promotional basis.
6. A final average score of 70% is required in the interview portion of the examination to be placed on the eligible list.

THIS EXAMINATION IS TO BE GIVEN ONLY ON AN INTERDEPARTMENTAL PROMOTIONAL BASIS

The City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, disability, creed, color, ancestry, medical condition (cancer), or Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome.
