SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: Essay.....Advisory
Interview.....100%

The examination will consist entirely of an evaluation of experience and personal qualifications by interview. In the interview, emphasis may be placed on the candidate's knowledge of: resource materials such as technical publications, codes, City Charter, and awareness of experts in the field of harbor engineering; environmental regulations and procedures sufficient to ensure compliance with Federal, State, and local laws; cost estimating and appraisal methods; legal requirements for leases, contracts, and permits as they relate to harbor development activities; civil, structural, electrical, and mechanical engineering, architectural principles, and construction management applicable to harbor construction, design, and maintenance sufficient to ensure project delivery; coastal engineering design principles and marine construction methods and laws; pertinent City, Personnel Department, and Harbor Department rules, policies, and procedures, including Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) responsibilities, Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) provisions, Employee Relations Ordinance, and Civil Service Rules; fundamental principles and practices of supervision and management, including directing, motivating, training, disciplining, commending, and evaluating the work of subordinates; work and project management principles and practices including the use of Critical Path Method (C.P.M.); safety principles, practices, and procedures; and the ability to read and interpret complex construction plans; direct and coordinate the work of groups of professional employees in the Engineering or Construction Division of the Harbor Department; communicate both orally and in writing, in a clear and concise manner sufficient to effectively inform, recommend or advise management, the public, governmental agencies, and others; deal tactfully, effectively, and persuasively with other employees, vendors, and contractors; and other necessary skills, knowledge and abilities.

Prior to the interview, applicants will be required to prepare some written material related to the duties and responsibilities of a Harbor Engineer. This essay material will not be separately scored, but will be presented to the interview board for discussion with the candidate and for consideration in the overall evaluation of the candidate. The advisory essay will be administered on-line. Applicants invited to participate in the examination will receive an e-mail from the City of Los Angeles outlining the specific steps on how to complete the on-line advisory essay. Applicants who fail to complete the on-line advisory essay as instructed may be disqualified. It is anticipated the on-line advisory essay will be administered between JANUARY 7, 2019 AND JANUARY 14, 2019.

Candidates will be notified by e-mail of the date, time, and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles. It is anticipated that the interviews will begin during the period of FEBRUARY 11, 2019 AND FEBRUARY 22, 2019.

NOTES:

1. This examination is based on a validation study.
2. Appointment to this position is subject to a one-year probationary period as provided by Section 1011 of the Los Angeles City Charter.
3. Candidates will accrue seniority credit at the rate of 0.10 of a point for each year of service in those classes that provide qualifying experience for this position. A maximum of one point will be added to the score of those candidates.
4. As a covered entity under the Fair Employment and Housing Act and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability and upon request, will provide reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to its programs, services, and activities. To request a disability accommodation, please complete the Disability Accommodation Form within 14 calendar days of the submittal of the City application. The Disability Accommodation Form can be obtained at http://per.lacity.org/exams/verify_disability.pdf.
5. Applications are accepted subject to review to ensure that minimum qualifications are met. Candidates may be disqualified at any time if it is determined that they do not possess the minimum qualifications stated on this bulletin.
6. You must have received a regular appointment to a City position or be on a reserve list to file on a promotional basis.
7. A final average score of 70% is required to be placed on the eligible list.
8. In accordance with Civil Service Rule, Sec. 4.24, review periods may be combined. Candidates in the examination process may file protests as provided in Sec. 4.20, 4.22 and 4.23 as applicable and within the required time frame; however, the Personnel Department may respond to and resolve protests prior to the establishment of the eligible list.
