SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: Essay	Advisory
Interview	100%

The examination will consist entirely of an interview wherein candidates will be evaluated on their knowledge, experience, professional background and personal qualifications and abilities. Emphasis will be placed on the following: Judgment and Decision Making, Supervision, Customer Service, Oral Communication, Leadership, and Job Knowledge, including knowledge of: technical literature related to street use enforcement, such as Code Sections and Ordinances; conditions and situations in the field that could pose a threat to life or property; arrest procedures; criminal case filing procedures and report requirements for court cases; and the Memorandum of Agreement with the Los Angeles Police Department regarding the law enforcement authority of the Investigation and Enforcement Division.

Additional information can be obtained by going to <http://per.lacity.org/eoo/jobanalyses.htm> and clicking on Competencies under Senior Street Services Investigator.

At the time of the interview, candidates will be required to prepare some written material related to the duties and responsibilities of a Senior Street Services Investigator. This essay material will not be separately scored, but will be presented to the interview board for consideration in the overall evaluation of the candidate. Candidates who fail to complete the advisory essay may be disqualified. Candidates may anticipate that PCs (personal computers) will be made available to type their advisory essay responses.

Candidates will be notified by e-mail of the date, time, and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles. It is anticipated that interviews will begin during the period of MAY 23, 2016 to JUNE 3, 2016.
