AN EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

SELECTION PROCESS

After meeting minimum qualifications, candidates will be scheduled for the following:

Examination Weights: Written Test.....Qualifying Interview 100%

The examination for Electrician Supervisor will consist of a qualifying written test and an interview. In the qualifying written test, which will consist entirely of multiple-choice questions, the following competencies may be evaluated, including knowledge of: equipment practices and procedures pertaining to the installation of electrical conduits, conductors, outlets, circuit breakers, and switches; testing of circuits for shorts, grounds, opens, and poor insulation; motors and generators; electrical theory as related to building and facility electrical systems; wiring diagrams and symbols; Los Angeles City Electrical Codes for industrial and commercial facilities; safe electrical work practices; planning labor and materials for budget; supervisory principles and practices, including Equal Employment Opportunity; formal grievance procedures; and the ability to ensure and enforce safe work practices; and other necessary knowledge and abilities.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the time and location of the written test, which will be administered in a single half-day session on SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2016, in Los Angeles.

Passing Score for the Qualifying Written Test

The passing score for the qualifying written test will be determined by Personnel Department staff after the qualifying written test is administered. Consideration will be given to the number of candidates taking the test and the existing and anticipated number of vacancies such that there are a sufficient number of eligibles on the list to satisfy current and future vacancies for the next two years. Therefore, the passing score for the qualifying multiple-choice written may be set either above or below 70%.

Candidates must achieve a passing score on the qualifying multiple-choice test in order to be scheduled for the interview.

The examination score will be based entirely on the interview. In the interview, emphasis may be placed on the candidate's qualifications as they demonstrate the knowledge of: safe electrical work practices in compliance with Cal/OSHA; sound supervisory principles and practices, including Equal Employment Opportunity policies and procedures; Civil Service Rules, policies and procedures; supervisory principles, practices and techniques to effectively train, discipline, motivate and evaluate job performance of subordinates; formal grievance procedures; recordkeeping and writing reports; planning labor and materials, including the use of personal computers in tracking expenses and work orders; and the ability to: sketch and explain wiring diagrams; make estimates; interpret and manage contracts; coordinate electrical work with other crafts; explain and inspect journey-level electrical work; deal tactfully and effectively with the public, other supervisors and departments; communicate orally in a clear and effective manner to management and workers; and other necessary skills, knowledge and abilities.

Candidates who pass the qualifying written multiple-choice test will be invited to participate in the interview. Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the date, time, and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles.

NOTES:

1. This examination is based on a validation study.
2. Applications are accepted subject to review to ensure that minimum qualifications are met. Candidates may be disqualified at any time if it is determined that they do not possess the minimum qualifications stated on this bulletin.
