AN EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: Essay ..... Advisory
Interview ..... 100%

The examination will consist entirely of an evaluation by interview. In the interview, emphasis may be placed on the candidate's experience and background in providing the knowledge of: City laws pertaining to animal licensing, care, and impounding of animals; department adoption programs to encourage adoption of animals; animal enrichment programs sufficient to maintain the physical and mental well-being of sheltered animals; methods of feeding domestic, wild and exotic animals; appropriate symptoms of sick animals such as runny nose, listlessness and coughing; common dog and cat breeds sufficient to visually identify common breeds; proper techniques in handling a dog using a lead rope sufficient to prevent injury to the animal or technician; fundamental principles and practices of supervision, including directing, assigning, motivating, training, disciplining, and evaluating the work of subordinates; pertinent City and Personnel Department rules, policies and procedures including Memorandum of Understanding and Equal Employment Opportunity; and the ability to properly clean shelter facilities; euthanize animals; direct and coordinate and evaluate the work of groups of employees engaged in a variety of animal care technician activities; train employees regarding the hazards and safety precautions working with animals including dangerous animals; photograph animals for City web page publication; investigate and handle complaints sufficiently to reach an agreement acceptable to both parties involved; effectively communicate in writing; deal tactfully and effectively with the public, subordinates, peers, rescue organizations and management; and other necessary skills, knowledge and abilities.

At the time of the interview, candidates will be required to prepare some written material on a topic related to the duties and responsibilities of an Animal Care Technician Supervisor. This material may not be separately scored, but will be presented to the interview board for discussion with the candidate and for consideration in the overall evaluation of the candidate. Candidates who fail to complete the advisory writing session may be disqualified. Candidates may anticipate that PCs (personal computers) will be made available to type their advisory essay responses.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the date, time and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles. It is anticipated that interviews will begin during the period of OCTOBER 19, 2015 to OCTOBER, 30, 2015.
