AN EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight:	Training and Experience Questionnaire	Qualifying
	Interview	100%

The examination will consist of a qualifying Training and Experience Questionnaire and an interview. In the qualifying Training and Experience Questionnaire candidates may be evaluated on their knowledge, experience, professional background, personal qualifications and abilities. Emphasis may be placed on the following competencies: judgment and decision making, safety focus, stress tolerance, supervision, interpersonal skills, leadership, resolves conflict and job knowledge, which includes knowledge of: methods, and materials used in the construction, maintenance, and repair of marine terminal facilities including wharves, piers, warehouses, buildings and waterways; and other necessary skills, knowledge and abilities.

The qualifying Training and Experience Questionnaires will be submitted to an expert review panel for evaluation. The expert review panel will assign a numeric score to each candidate based on an assessment of each candidate's qualifications as described on the qualifying Training and Experience Questionnaire. Unsolicited supplement information will not be submitted to the expert review panel.

The qualifying Training and Experience Questionnaire will be administered in a single half-day session on SATURDAY, JULY 23, 2016 in Los Angeles. Candidates will be notified by email of the time and location of the written test. Candidates may anticipate that PCs (personal computers) will be made available to type their responses to the qualifying Training and Experience Questionnaire.

PASSING SCORE FOR QUALIFYING TEST

The passing score for the qualifying test will be determined by Personnel Department staff after the qualifying test is administered. Consideration will be given to the number of candidates taking the test and existing anticipated number of vacancies, such that there are a sufficient number of eligibles on the list to satisfy current and future vacancies for the next two years. Therefore, the passing score for the qualifying Training and Experience Questionnaire may be set either above or below 70%.

Candidates must achieve a passing score on the qualifying Training and Experience Questionnaire in order to be invited to the interview.

The examination score will be based entirely on the interview. In the interview, the following competencies may be evaluated: judgment and decision making, safety focus, stress tolerance, supervision, interpersonal skills, leadership, resolves conflict and job knowledge, which includes knowledge of: methods and materials used in excavating, ditching, digging, shoring, back filling, weed mowing, form building, loading, unloading, and concrete work; equipment such as small power equipment, cement finishing tools, picks, shovels, sledgehammers and pneumatic tools used in the maintenance and construction of port facilities; various trades including plumbers, electricians, gardeners, pile drivers, welders and carpenters; safety gear and procedures required in a marine facility including life vests, steel-toed boots, visibility vest, beacon lights, hard hats, gloves, and conducting on-site safety meetings; Cal/OSHA rules and regulations sufficient to ensure that proper safety signage is displayed while working around streets, railroad tracks and various speed limits; safety codes pertaining to construction and maintenance of marine terminal facilities; and other necessary skills, knowledge and abilities.

Additional information can be obtained by going to <http://per.lacity.org/eeo/jobanalyses.htm> and clicking on Competencies under Port Maintenance Supervisor.

Candidates will be notified later by e-mail of the date, time, and location of the interview, which will be held in Los Angeles.

NOTES:

1. This examination is based on a validation study and as provided by Civil Service Commission Rule 4.20, the written test will not be just subject to candidate inspection.
