SELECTION PROCESS

Examination Weight: Interview 100%
Essay Advisory

The examination will consist entirely of an evaluation of qualifications by interview. In the interview, emphasis may be placed on the candidate's experience and background as they provide the knowledge of: principles and practices of communications engineering pertinent to the planning, design, installation, operation, testing, and maintenance of communications systems; sources of communication engineering information and developments in the field; leased communications services and facilities, and their use; administrative principles and practices sufficient to develop and maintain large-scale communications systems and infrastructures; communications organizations, resource management and financial management sufficient to provide communications operational support services; program/project management principles sufficient to develop and implement a communications engineering organizational program or project; supervisory principles and practices; City and Personnel Department rules, policies and procedures including Equal Employment Opportunity; and the ability to plan, direct, coordinate and review the activities of a large communications organization; deal tactfully and effectively with City officials, executive management and employees; effectively communicate information verbally and in writing; and other necessary skills, knowledge and abilities.

At the time of the interview, candidates will be required to prepare some written material related to the duties and responsibilities of a Senior Communications Engineer. This material will not be separately scored, but will be presented to the interview board for discussion with the candidate and for consideration in the overall evaluation of the candidate. Candidates who fail to complete the advisory writing session may be disqualified. Candidates may anticipate that PCs (personal computers) will be made available to type their advisory essay responses.

Candidates will be notified later by mail of the date, time and location of the interviews, which will be held in Los Angeles. It is anticipated that interviews will begin during the period of AUGUST 25, 2014 to SEPTEMBER 5, 2014.

NOTES:

1. Appointment to this position is subject to a one-year probationary period as provided by Section 1011 of the Los Angeles City Charter.
2. Applications are accepted subject to review to ensure that minimum qualifications are met. Candidates may be disqualified at any time if it is determined that they do not possess the minimum qualifications stated on this bulletin.
3. As a covered entity under the Fair Employment and Housing Act and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability and, upon request, will provide reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to its programs, services, and activities.
